LIFE TOGETHER

BY PASTOR TIMOTHY FLEACE

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

We are looking at geographical places in the Bible and the theological and spiritual meaning they carry. The season of Lent, which begins on 18 February with Ash Wednesday, has long been associated with three geographical locations in the Bible: the desert, Babylon, and Egypt. These three locations are remembered as places of trial, exile, oppression, temptation, and struggle. This month we will look at the desert and Babylon; next month we will consider Egypt.

The Gospel for the first Sunday of Lent is the story of Jesus spending 40 days in the desert being tempted by the devil. The desert was considered a place of trial and the dwelling place of evil spirits. It was the place where Israel was led by God for 40 years to test her to see if she would be faithful to God by trusting Him and following His commandments. That generation of Israel failed the test. When Christ enters the desert he will remain faithful to his Father trusting Him to provide what he needs. He will fast and go without bread, but he will be sustained by every word which comes from the mouth of God. The life of God is more important than food.

Sometime around 587 B.C., the armies of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, conquered Jerusalem, tore down its walls, and laid waste the Temple that Solomon constructed. The conquest was brutal; you can read about some of the brutality in Psalm 137. A sizable portion of the Jewish population was taken captive and forced to live in exile in Babylon. Because of the devastating nature of that conquest, Babylon would become a symbol of corruption and evil in the eyes of the people of God. As Psalm 137 describes her, Babylon is a devastator.

In the Book of Revelation, Babylon becomes a symbol of Rome. In chapter 17, Rome/Babylon is depicted as a harlot seated upon a great beast. She is the source of abominations, luxury, blasphemy, and temptation. Chapters 17 and 18 depict the fall of Babylon and the rejoicing among the people of God when Babylon is no more. For our purposes, picture Babylon as a symbol as well. It is the source of greed, political corruption, the porn industry, lust for fame and power, lies, and pride. It thrives in social media, instability, and lack of religious faith. It is the full public expression of the sin that lies in the human heart and is empowered by demons.

During our midweek Lenten services this year we will be looking at spiritual discipline as a way to resist Babylon and grow more faithful during our sojourn in the wilderness of this age.

We will lament the addictions, the divisiveness, the acedia, the despair, and the nihilism that haunts our society. All of these are the stock and trade of Babylon. We will also rejoice on Easter Sunday morning when Christ will rise from the dead triumphing over the armies of Babylon and the kingdom of death.

In Christ,

Dear St. John Lutheran Church,
Thank you for opening your heart and home to Indiana's children. The best gift you could give a child is a loving and safe place. Our reason to celebrate this season is you.
Happy Holidays,
The Indiana Department of Child Services

My child, do not regard lightly the discipline of the Lord, or lose heart when you are punished by him; for the Lord disciplines those whom he loves, and chastises every child whom he accepts. Hebrews 12:5-6

Silas, Fellow Worker of St. Peter and St. Paul

Commemoration Day February 10

"Silas, a leader in the Church at Jerusalem, was chosen by Paul (Acts 15:40) to accompany him on his second missionary journey from Antioch to Asia Minor and Macedonia. Silas, also known as Silvanus, was imprisoned with Paul in Philippi and experienced the riots in Thessalonica and Berea. After rejoining Paul in Corinth, Silas apparently remained there for an extended time. Sometime later he apparently joined the apostle Peter, likely serving as Peter's secretary (1 Peter 5:12). Tradition says that Silas was the first bishop at Corinth."

Valentine, Martyr

Commemoration Day February 14

"A physician and priest living in Rome during the rule of Emperor Claudius, Valentine became one of the noted martyrs of the third century. The commemoration of his death, which occurred in AD 270, became part of the calendar of remembrance in the Early Church of the West. Tradition suggests that on the day of his execution for his Christian faith, Valentine left a note of encouragement for a child of his jailer written on an irregularly shaped piece of paper. This greeting became a pattern for millions of written expressions of love and caring that now are the highlight of Valentine's Day in many nations."

Philipp Melanchthon (birth), Confessor

Commemoration Day February 16

"Philipp Melanchthon (1497-1560) was a brilliant student of the classics and a humanist scholar. In 1518, he was appointed to teach along with Martin Luther at the University of Wittenberg. At Luther's urging, Melanchthon began teaching theology and Scripture in addition to his courses in classical studies. In April 1530, Emperor Charles V called an official meeting between the representatives of Lutheranism and Roman Catholicism, hoping to effect a meeting of minds between two opposing groups. Since Luther was at that time under papal excommunication and an imperial ban, Melanchthon was assigned the duty of being the chief Lutheran representative at this meeting. He is especially remembered and honored as the author of the Augsburg Confession, which was officially presented by the German princes to the emperor on June 25, 1530, as the defining document of Lutheranism within Christendom. Melanchthon died on April 19, 1560."

Polycarp of Smyrna,

Pastor and Martyr

Commemoration Day February 23

"Born around AD 69, Polycarp was a central figure in the Early Church. A disciple of the evangelist John, he linked

LENTEN SEASON

The season of Lent has long been understood as a time of repentance. It is the Spring cleaning for a human soul that has become drab and musty with neglect and sin. The ancient terminology for this return to the Lord is Spiritual Warfare. Modern Christians are squeamish with terms like warfare being applied to following Jesus, but it was familiar to St. Paul who describes Christian life as putting on the armor of God (Ephesians 6). The enemies we face are threefold: the world, the flesh, and the devil. They are formidable and we will be overrun by them without the grace of God. But we are also called to struggle against them and our weapons are the Christian disciplines of repentance, prayer, fasting, and works of mercy or almsgiving. The mid-week Lenten services this year will focus on these disciplines and the keeping of a Holy Lent which by God's grace will become a natural way of life for us for the rest of the year. All services will be at 6:30 EST.

a little lutheran levity!

Did Adam and Eve ever have a date? No, they had an apple!

What did the flame say to his buddies after he fell in love?

I found the perfect match!

February 14

Jesus replied, "You must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, and all your mind."

Matthew 22:37

Dear Lord, I love you.
Thank you for loving me first. You are amazing!

ASH THURSDAY

Ash Wednesday is the beginning of the penitential season of Lent in which we, through prayer and fasting, reflect on the passion of our Lord. It is a reminder of our mortality and our need for forgiveness and reconciliation with God. This is a wonderful time to reflect on where we are in our spiritual pilgrimage. Our Ash Wednesday service will actually be on Thursday this year, 19 February, at 6:30 PM. We pray that you will join us as we begin our journey into Lent.

Highlights from St. John's Lutheran Church Council Meeting

January 2026

The St. John's Lutheran Church Council met on Thursday, January 15, 2026, at 6:00 PM in the church social room. Members present were Deron Steiner, Barbara Prince, Pastor Tim Fleace, Tammy Wininger, Duane Mann, and Angie Steiner. Absent: Karen Mann
 Chairman Deron Steiner called the meeting to order. The minutes from the December meeting were approved as printed in the St. John's Journal, per a motion made by Tammy Wininger, seconded by Duane Mann. The motion carried.

Treasurer Duane Mann presented the financial report for December. As of December 31, 2025, the report shows an ending balance of $40,642.90. Duane reported that finances are similar to previous months and that Christmas giving was greater than last year. Duane sent the 2025 financial report to the treasurer at Dubois and is waiting to receive a copy of their report. Tammy Wininger moved to accept the financial report, seconded by Barbara Prince. Motion carried.

- Financial Trustee Report – Giving was steady with the addition of the Christmas service offering.
- Property Trustee – vacant
- Worship Deacon – Tammy and Pastor Tim discussed worship times and communion details for upcoming Ash THURSDAY services, which will be held on February 19, 2026.
- Youth Deacon – Barbara reported that we need to secure volunteers to oversee the nursery on Sunday mornings. She will continue to ask parishioners to help.
- Pastor's Report - Pastor Tim combines activities for both churches in his report for December. He made twelve pastoral calls, attended two meetings, led three Bible study sessions, led four confirmation classes, and performed one funeral service. He was pleased with the attendance and participation at our Christmas Eve service. The joint council session went well. Both councils are very supportive of the shared ministry arrangement. The theme for mid-week Lenten services is spiritual or Lenten disciplines. He will be attending a Conference Lenten retreat on February 5 and 6.

OLD BUSINESS

Discussion of a "bat box" and/or modifications to the exterior cross is tabled until spring.

NEW BUSINESS

Barbara reported that the copiers in the office are using toner faster, and the cost of the toner is concerning. Duane and Deron will research options to replace our current equipment.

Tammy will take the vacuum we use in the church to a local repair shop.

DATES TO REMEMBER

February 19 – Ash Thursday Service 6:30 pm

Tammy Wininger moved to adjourn, seconded by Duane Mann. The meeting adjourned at 6:35 PM.

Submitted by,

Angie Steiner, Council Secretary

Prayer of Martin Luther

Dear God, if only we were as diligent to pray, at least with a longing in the heart, as you are in coaxing, bidding, commanding, assuring, and constraining us to pray.

Unfortunately, we are too lazy and ungrateful! Forgive us, dear Lord, and strengthen our faith. Since I cannot pay the penalty, and my name has no prestige, let satisfaction be made in the name of my Lord Jesus Christ. Amen.
